

Malaysia and Singapore

This month I left Timor once more, because of my Visa, and I took the opportunity to get to know a couple more countries in Asia.

I went to Malaysia, near Kuala Lumpur (the capitol), to visit a friend of mine I met at CFNI, in Dallas. I could meet his family and some of his friends. It has been 2 years I hadn't seen him and it was good to remember old times from Texas! I also had the opportunity to visit some touristic places in the city, like the Petronas Towers (today's highest twin towers), Petalling Street and other areas - many photos were taken! =)

After that I went by bus to Singapore (they're right next to each other) and stayed with a brazilian family, friends of Josh and Claudia (that became mine as well) and I had great times there. I could rest a lot, ate really good brazilian food ;) e visited a not-so-famous country to westerners, but it seemed more "1st world" than USA (at least the part I visited). I rode the subway, buses with two levels - the best "London style" one - and some more. The singaporeans organization is impressive... very on time - all the time! =)

On Sunday I played drums at VFC, with Saula, my tongan friend that's studying there. He was leading worship and asked if I watned to help. :)

MALAYSIA - PETRONAS TOWERS

We had the Pastor @ Prayer meeting As usual... in Dili and Baucau and it has improved every time. We had many pastors present who are each and every day embracing the vision of unity among churches. God has been faithful! Here in Dili pr. Hock Lin Chua (Ta's executive director) preached and it was very anointed!

Some pastors of this group are now in Kupang and Bali, in a conference for south asia pastors - you can pray for that as well! =)

We also had the Youth @ Prayer meeting, and about 20 timorese youth came, ready to receive more from God and learn more about Him.

We made a Bible contest, with questions and answers and also a "competition" to see who found Bible verses faster. Very nice! Apart from this, we had a dance presentation from one of the churches here...

Talking about it...

Dance Seminar

I participated in the 1st

Christian Dance Seminar in Timor Leste. No... I didn't dance. I helped in the worship team during the Seminar and also taking photos and everything else. It was a real blessing!!

We had many youth from several churches coming, and even some from Catholic churches. The instructors were Israel, Barbara (Israel's wife) and Mayara (Barbara's sister)... all brazilians.

This seminar was a "follow-up" of the School of Worship we had in the months of May and June, that you read in the previous Prayer Letters. Every day we had classes about Worship, Prophetic Dance, Tabernacle of David and Moses and also practical lessons - everyone was divided in groups that were taught certain songs and everyone danced in the last day. It was very nice to see some young guys that were not very interested in the beginning, but at the end really "danced with their heart" and many felt very touched.

We also had a big spiritual breakthrough - specially the last day - in which some youth gave their hearts to Jesus for the first time. I'm thankful to God that I was given the opportunity to be a part of moments like these - and I'm also grateful for your lives!

Thank you for your prayers!

Prayer Point

One of the power generators from the government broke last month and there have been many power cuts, so, because of the heat, sleeping at night have become very uncomfortable, and not to mention that computer and cell-phone batteries won't last for a long time...

Pray that this problem will be solved soon ;)

Maromak fo bensa!

God bless!

Hodi Maromak nia dame,
André
